

ARTISTS UNITED TO END POVERTY

LIVE UNITED

United Way
of Greater Greensboro

The Culture Pushers, in association with United Way of Greater Greensboro presents...

Artists United to End Poverty, a benefit album that will support United Way of Greater Greensboro’s efforts to END local poverty. Greensboro native and Grammy Award winning record producer Andreao “Fanatic” Heard, who has produced records for Michael Jackson, Beyonce, Notorious B.I.G., Anthony Hamilton and more is bringing together local recording artists from the Culture Pushers Collective and more to produce an epic multi music genre album that will help change our city forever!

Album announcement & Kick-off
Aug. 30, 5:30 - 8:30 p.m.
The Yard at Revolution Mill
Music • Natty Greene’s • food trucks

Come celebrate United Way’s annual kick-off and show your support for ending local poverty!
INFO: www.UnitedWayGSO.org/ArtistsUnited

Album Artists Include: The Hamiltones, Vanessa Ferguson, Caleb Serrano, Sybil, Shelby J, AND: LowBorn, Josh King, Molly McGinn, Quilla, Kaleta & The Super Yamba Band, Allen Peterson, J. Timber, Andre Fenix, Joel Henry, Juju Guru, Abigal Dowd, Evan Olson, Eric Chilton, Benji Johnson, Sam Craven, Josephus Thompson, III + MORE

Joy Shavitz • Randall Kaplan