

ARTISTS UNITED TO END POVERTY

LIVE UNITED

The Culture Pushers, in association with United Way of Greater Greensboro presents...

Artists United to End Poverty is a benefit album with contributions from local and regional recording artists, poets and prominent figures. This project will raise awareness about poverty in Greensboro and proceeds from album sales will go to United Way of Greater Greensboro to help support partnerships that END poverty.

Greensboro native and Grammy Award winning record producer Andreao "Fanatic" Heard who has produced records for Michael Jackson, Beyonce, Notorious B.I.G., Anthony Hamilton and more, is bringing together recording artists from the Culture Pushers Collective and beyond to produce an epic multi music genre album that will help change the City of Greensboro forever!
