

END POVERTY.

the lunch and learn series

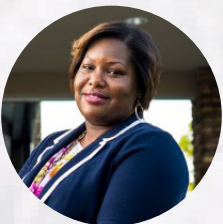

join us for end poverty: the lunch and learn series

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 12 | 12-1 P.M. | ZOOM

Learn from local leaders Dr. Jamie King, Jamilla Pinder and Justin Williams-Blackwell about COVID-19's impact on local education, health and housing issues. This series is free and open to the public. Register at unitedwayso.org/learn.

Dr. Jamie King is the Assistant Superintendent of Teaching, Learning and Professional Development for Guilford County Schools. He is graduate of Appalachian State University and holds a Masters from UNCG and doctoral degree in educational leadership from High Point University. Jamie has served as principal at Northeast Middle, principal at Greensboro College Middle College and assistant principal at Northeast High.

Jamilla Pinder is the Assistant Director Healthy Communities at Cone Health. She is a graduate of N.C. A&T State University and volunteers with local organizations like the Women's Resource Center and Reading Connections. Jamilla also serves on United Way's Health and Basic Needs Impact Council.

Justin Williams-Blackwell serves as the Community Impact Manager for Health and Basic Needs at United Way of Greater Greensboro. Justin is a graduate of Guilford College and holds a Masters in Public Affairs (MPA) from UNCG. Justin is an active volunteer in the Greensboro community, serving on the UNCG MPA Alumni Advisory Council, Piedmont Triad Regional Food Council, United Way Young Leaders Cabinet, and more.

End poverty.

Greater Greensboro

HOSTED BY UNITED WAY
YOUNG LEADERS

United Way
of Greater Greensboro