The cycle of poverty

Over 57,000 people in greater Greensboro are living in poverty, including one out of every four children in Greensboro.

Longstanding systemic issues that disproportionately impact children and families living in poverty can often create barriers that are hard to overcome. When we do not work together as a community to address these issues, children, adults and entire families can get caught in a cycle of poverty that is hard to escape.